Delilah Pratt, an ordinary seventeen-year-old junior at Greenway High, had her world completely shattered over summer break. Now, Delilah must find a way to deal with the aftermath. School is back in session and without Abbey, her best friend, Delilah wanders the halls empty and alone. At home, matters aren't much better with parents who barely acknowledge her existence. Things begin to shift even more out from under her when she finds out the truth about what happened to Abbey. As Delilah tries to discover what exactly happened, she meets Hayden, the new kid. With everything going on, will Delilah be able to unearth the big secret, or will she become part of it herself?
