May the Fourth be With You Ian Clooney

Every year the fourth of May gave Luke and his friends an obvious day to celebrate his birthday. The festivities normally involved the consumption of large quantity of beer, mild anti-social activities and the eating of late night pizzas.

This year however was different. In the nightclub in Chester Luke was confronted with a young lady who had a bosom with the gravitational pull of Saturn and the ability to kiss like a sink-plunger.

Ian Clooney's humorous novel chronicles the meeting of these two 'star crossed lovers' and the subsequent disturbance in the force across the Welsh / English border.
