I didn't believe in heroes until I met him.

For five years, I've lived in fear. No one will stop my stalker. Nobody can - his father is a senator.

Alone and powerless, I couldn't run, couldn't hide, couldn't escape.

Then I met Jacob.

He's built like a freight train, covered in scars, and fights like a trained killer.

He scares me. Fascinates me. Makes my heart stop when I imagine what his rock hard body can do to mine.

One look in his haunting eyes draws me in. Tempts me to do things I've never imagined. He kisses like he fights - furiously. One taste, and I want more.

If I can trust him with my life like I have with my body, he might just be my hero.

---

I came to destroy this town. I lost everything, spent a year under a torturer's knife, and woke up a dead man walking, hungry for vengeance...

Then I saw her.

The man I hate was laying his hands on her and I snapped.

Something went off inside me, something that drove me to remove his filthy hands from her beautiful body and replace them with mine.

The mission has changed. I won't stop until she's safe, and I've found out how hot her lips burn on mine...
