Grades 9-12. Essentially a complete teacher's manual for the novel, this LitPlan Teacher Pack includes lesson plans and reproducible resource materials for Brave New World. It includes: 19 Daily Lessons Short answer study questions Multiple choice quiz questions Vocabulary worksheets for each reading assignment 3 detailed writing assignments Individual and group activities Critical thinking discussion questions 5 unit tests (2 short answer, 2 multiple choice, 1 advanced) Evaluation forms Review puzzles & games Bulletin board ideas Reproducible student materials And more! A Note About A Few Of The Many Different Assignments Included: There is an anti-drug campaign class project with this unit. The three writing assignments in this unit have the purposes of informing, persuading, or expressing personal opinions. The detailed writing assignment sheets guide students through the assignments. In this unit of study, the writing assignments are all related to the class project, though you could substitute any of the Extra Discussion Questions as writing assignments if you prefer. The first assignment is to inform: students create an informative brochure for their anti-drug campaign class project. The second assignment is to persuade: students choose to create a persuasive brochure or to write a persuasive letter or essay relating to the anti-drug theme. The third assignment is to give students a chance to express their own opinions: they write a short editorial relating to the class project. Uses: These materials are geared for whole class use but are very easily adapted for independent study work, lit circles or book groups, home school use, or tutoring. If you have never taught this book before, this manual will give you a great foundation of materials on a variety of levels. If you have taught this book before, you might like to know that veteran teachers have told us they have found our LitPlan Teacher Pack manuals to be different from many other materials they have seen--and very helpful.
