Boriquén: Breve Historia de los Indios de Puerto Rico (Spanish Edition) Dr. Angel Rodriguez Alvarez

El propósito de este libro es ampliar el tema de las sociedades precolombinas el cual no es cubierto con suficiente profundidad en muchos de los libros sobre historia de Puerto Rico. Pretendemos que a través de la lectura de la presente obra el lector descubra su herencia cultural y desarrolle un aprecio hacia su legado histórico. Tratamos de presentar de forma abreviada y concisa la trayectoria de las sociedades indígenas que vivieron en Puerto Rico desde sus orígenes hasta la llegada de Cristóbal Colón en 1493. Presentamos una visión panorámica de los principales grupos indígenas de Puerto Rico, desde los primeros pobladores hasta la llegada de los europeos a la tierra de Boriquén. No se pretende presentar en detalle todos los aspectos que abarcan el tema. Tratamos de hacer accesible el tema a un público no especializado y por lo tanto hemos optado por un orden sencillo y simple el cual pone énfasis en los aspectos más importantes. El enfoque de la presente obra es de tipo histórico y está basado principalmente en los escritos de los cronistas y de otras fuentes bibliográficas. Sobre los cronistas como Fernández de Oviedo, el Padre Bartolomé de las Casas, Fray Ramón Pané aunque en la mayoría de sus escritos no se refirieron únicamente a la isla de Borinquen, sus textos son extensivos a toda el área geográfica ocupada culturalmente por los taínos, incluyendo a Puerto Rico.
