"Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings, signed by the President and Secretary, be sent to the family, and furnished to the Grange and Reporter, and other papers of the county be requested to copy. "James V. Gale, President. "Wm. J. Mix, Secretary." Tuesday morning, September 3, 1867, the people of Oregon--'«----into a state of wild excitement by the startling intelligence th» T Esq., was lying dead under the unfinished bridge. He was last seen between the hours of eight and nine, the previous evening. The bridge was finished over three spans from the West Side, and plank stringers were lain over the other two. He had evidently been beyond the unfinished part and was returning on the stringers, and is supposed to have stumbled and fallen through the bridge. Coroner J. M. Sewell summoned a jury of inquest, who returned the following verdict: Statb or Illinois, Ogle County, An inquisition, indented and taken for the people of the State of Illinois, at the Sinnissippi House, in the Town of Oregon, in said County and State, on the 3d day of September, A.
