Steve was a sweet and smiley boy.
His mom loved him very much, But she had a problem -

Every evening, at dinner,
When Steve ate cheese, egg, or sandwich with peanut butter and jelly,
And some food was left at the corner of his mouth,
Steve would clean his mouth with the sleeve of his shirt.

Steve's mom asked him over and over again "Leave your sleeve, Steve!"
but nothing helped.

Until one day she had a brilliant idea...

This bed-time children's story tells the tale of Steve and his mom and shows a great and easy way to motivate kids to stop cleaning their mouth with their sleeves.
