Eclipse of Her Heart (Markham Library Series) (Volume 2) Thianna D

2nd in The Markham Library Series. Each book can be read independently of the others. Thrilled to be spending her summer interning at the world's largest erotic library, Serendipity Jones feels it cannot get any better than sun, sand, and the beautiful castle the library is housed in. Within days of her arrival, strange things begin to occur that only she knows of. Erotic sounds come from within the library when nobody else is around, the books won't open, and a strange man seems to be plaguing her steps. At first annoyed by the imposing taciturn man, she finds herself attracted and quickly falls in love with Joshuan even though he is meant for another. On a quest to find the woman foretold in a prophecy from his world, he is at first annoyed at Seri who keeps getting in his way before coming to enjoy her company and falling in love with her. But their short love affair must come to an end. For the woman foretold will be found as the sun goes silent and the solar eclipse comes quickly. This book contains scenes not suitable for anyone under the age of 18. If you do not enjoy reading erotic scenes, this may not be the book for you.
