Getting valuable, accurate information is the key to being price competitive and ahead of your competition. To help you achieve this we have created the report that provides details about all of the U.S. Denim Jeans imports (purchases) that have been shipped to the U.S. market for the months of March and April 2015. Fields in the report include: shipper, buyer, commodity, volume, place where the order was originated, export port, import port, vessel name and the arrival date. The report covers the shipments from the first of March to the last day of April. The report provides tremendous potential because it not only gives you the most clear indication of how the Denim Jeans market is performing based on the firm purchasing orders, but it also gives you the ability to establish direct contacts with Denim Jeans producers, cutting off the middle man and unnecessary overhead. This is very useful for Denim Jeans manufacturers, buyers and sellers, Denim Jeans import - export executives, freight forwarders and anyone interested in the Denim Jeans industry. Once you look at the report, you will see that the following for the months of March and April 2015: 1. The actual shipment details such as, the names of the suppliers/sellers and consignees/buyers, order volumes, the type of Denim Jeans products shipped, the place where the order originated, as well as export/import ports and much more. 2. The percentage difference for the Denim Jeans shipped between the U.S. East Coast and U.S. Gulf and U.S. West Coast. 2. The total volume of Denim Jeans shipped in March and April 2015. 3. The total shipping orders of Denim Jeans shipped in March and April 2015. 4. The biggest Denim Jeans suppliers along with the largest U.S. buyers. This information is not distributed to the public and in very rare occasions—about 2 to 5 percent of the time—the shipper or consignee prefers not to disclose their full style information, but the shipment is still in the report. We can provide personal assistance to track down the details for those shipments, if requested.
