Outdoor and Trail Guide to the Wichita Mountains of Southwest Oklahoma

Edward C. Ellenbrook

This guide is written for everyone who wishes to visit, whether on foot or by automobile, the many beautiful and historic attractions found within the Wichita Mountains of southwest Oklahoma. This is not just a hiking guide, but a guide for the hunter and angler who seek the enjoyment of nature's bounty. The book begins with a discussion of the Spirit Trail and the archaeological and geological history of the mountains. Next you'll read about the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge and find information about short walks to historic and interesting places; longer trail hikes; historic points of interest that are accessible by automobile and historic cemeteries of the Wichitas. The book also provides a guided tour itinerary and a guide to hunting and to favorite fishing holes in the Wichitas. A variety of black & white photographs, maps and drawings illustrate the information.
