A tale of a boy and a dog. Rick, the boy, befriends Ruddy, the shipwrecked dog, and is well repaid by the animal's devotion. The first chapter is titled "Rick Wants a Dog" and the second is "Ruddy Wants a Home". How can a story that starts out like that be anything but wonderful? Rick and Ruddy is a story for the ages and is a book every child is sure to love and treasure.

Here is a tale that goes straight to the heart of every young person who reads it. How the kindness of a little Jersey boy to a shipwrecked dog is later repaid by the devotion of the faithful animal, is a wholesome and interesting piece of juvenile narrative. Rick is a boy that young folks would like to know, while Ruddy is one of the most admirable canines in the world of books.

“Boys from eight to twelve will enjoy roaming through the woods with Rick and his dog Ruddy. These two find at the end of a perfect day that there are many exciting days ahead of them, for they are to take a long trip down the river in a motor boat known more familiarly as ‘Sallie.’ Rick’s friend Chot accompanies them, and an old Uncle makes it a very interesting trip, for, of course, there is a bona fide mystery.” -Social Progress, Volumes 6-7, January 1922
