Shangaa: Art of Tanzania, the publication presented by the QCC Art Gallery, City University of New York (CUNY), is the first major exhibition outside of Germany and Tanzania to focus on the traditional arts of this East African country. Edited by Dr. Gary van Wyk, Shangaa includes contributions by leading scholars of Tanzanian art from the United States, Tanzania, South Africa, and Germany, who draw on fresh research in the field. The 342-page book is lavishly illustrated with the art work that was on exhibit and in other collections, along with both archival images and contemporary photographs of art practices. It includes a comprehensive index and bibliography, and promises to be an indispensable contribution to the field of African Art.
