The 24 Hour Jazz Cafe (Volume 1) Jamie Sinclair

The book begins with psychic Mitch Johnson returning to the small town of Morecambe where he tells his lifelong friend, Rupert Watts, that a young woman is going to be murdered. Mitch thinks that the killing will mirror that of a schoolgirl fifteen years earlier, a crime Mitch himself was suspected of committing. With no idea when the murder will take place, or who the victim is, the friends turn amateur detective to find the girl before she comes to harm. But they must also contend with Don Hague, a senior councillor and central figure in the dark underbelly of the town who holds Mitch responsible for the ruin of his career and his reputation in the town. The police are watching Mitch, and they are also watching Don Hague. Who is the girl Mitch is convinced will die? How is her death linked to the schoolgirl murder? Is Don Hague, or his associates, involved? Can Mitch and Rupert convince the police to take them seriously before it's too late to save a girl's life? The 24 Hour Jazz Café is the first in a series of crime thrillers to feature Mitch and Rupert.
