Contemporary Romance-- Intended for mature readers over 18 years of age

Jenna Theopolis has always known what she wanted. Getting out of her small hometown of Greenfield was number one on her list of priorities. Until she met Rusty Catron.

Rusty's fun-loving personality was the perfect match for Jenna's inner wild child. But what started off as a summer fling quickly turns into something more. At least it does for Jenna.

Rusty has lived with the ghost of his father's abandonment since he was a child, but now he's beginning to feel the crippling effects of his scars. He wants to trust in Jenna, but deep down he doesn't believe someone so wild and free can ever be tamed.

But tragedy strikes, pushing Jenna out of Greenfield and leaving Rusty with a choice to make—face his inner demons or lose the love of his life. Forever.

This is a novella of approximately 38,000 words.

This story can be read as a stand-alone or enjoyed as part of the Wild Ones series
