This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1875 Excerpt: ...to too much credit for this well digested review, to need the apology with which they close their report and which we quote, as follows: We apologi/o to the Grand Lodge lvir the length of this report. We undertook the work so late in the year that we were compelled to put our copy in the hands of tho printer, without that revision which would have resulted in a very considerable cutting down. If we have commented freely upon the opinions ol our brothers, we have done so honestly, not dogmatically, and with a full consciousness of our own fallibility. Our labor has been a pleasant one, and the critical study we have given to the year's Masonic Proceedings, has caused us to appreciate more thoroughly than ever the Wisdom,.Strength and lieuuty of the Masonic Institution. They review the doings of fifty-four Grand Hodies and thus have had a more than usually extensive Held to survey. The proceedings of our Grand Lodge for 1873--fifty-third annual communication--are reviewed in f.rlen»--alluding feelingly and sympathetically to the death of I5ro. Richard!. Knoll, lale Chairman of Committee on Foreign Correspondence, and quoting approvingly portions of his last report. We quote the following in reference to Hunoaiiv, and ask is it not harsh or illiberal thus to treat an overture for fraternal intercourse made in evident good faith and amity. They say on this topic In our lafct annual report we published the petition of the Grand Orient of Hungary to our Grand Lodge, praying for recognition. Wo then recommended that the petition be denied, because; tho Grand Orient of Mtmgary is the offspring of that of France. Since then II. W. Bro. Batchelor, Grand Secretary, has referred to us a communcation from B. Kdward Gottheil, in which the latter states that ho wa...
