Quarters One is a fascinating look at a unique residence with historic connections, built over two hundred years ago in historic surroundings at Fort Myer, Virginia. Some of the U.S. Army's leading families have lived in this house, which by 1908 became the permanent home of the Army chiefs of staff and their families. Through interesting illustrations and vignettes, the booklet captures the rich sense of history and tradition that pervades this fine National Historic Landmark, and serves to honor Army families everywhere.
