Perish the Thought Lori Davis

In a single moment, Grace Duet's life changed forever. After a near fatal car crash left a gaping hole in her memory, Grace wakes up in a strange town, with a husband she can't remember and a killer hot on her trail. Positive that she has forgotten a deadly secret, Grace sets out to find the missing pieces of her puzzle, but her efforts are hampered by the people around her. It seems everyone in town is hiding a secret or harboring a grudge-including Grace's new groom. And for Grace, the closer she comes to understanding what transpired in her missing days, the more danger she finds herself in. Written in the finest tradition of contemporary mystery novelists, Lori Davis weaves a story of deceit and danger that will keep you guessing until the very last page.
