This is uniquely an original Chinese text written specifically for translation to English. Dr Wu Yan is a linguist and physician, a visiting professor at the Pacific Institute of Chinese Medicine in New York, and is a tenured faculty member at Beijing Peili Acupuncture College. This text is based on the practice of TCM in the medical centers of the People's Republic of China. It complements all didactic and clinical texts by providing students and clinicians with the treatment protocols used in China's public healthcare system. Over 100 general conditions are differentiated according to pattern, referenced to related biomedical conditions, and discussed in terms of etiology and pathogenesis.
