From the mind of a unique woman of God comes a dramatic play which tells a tale of hope and wholeness that is born out of faith even in the midst of adversity. The play's author, Margaret Christine Mullings, has never written a play before. She has only had experience in writing songs, but nothing like the masterpiece she has been inspired to write. In a recent interview with the Freeport News, Mrs. Mullings talked about the play, Woman Will Thou Be Made Whole? calling it a story of inspiration because it was written after she was uplifted by the Holy Spirit.
