Two If By Sea William H. Northacker

During the height of the Cold War, United States Navy Commander Lee McKay's personal fight against the Soviet Union begins off the Libyan coast in the midst of a treacherous Mediterranean Sea winter storm, with the flagship of a Soviet cruiser-destroyer group intentionally ramming his partially disabled frigate. And so begins "Two If By Sea", a fast-paced novel based on the first-hand experience of military historian and author Lieutenant Colonel William H. Northacker, Special Forces, US Army, Retired, and US Navy Civilian, Retired. When two determined forces collide, righteous honor and dogged persistence seek to overcome the lies and combat born of evil. Cold War veterans, historians, and fiction fans who like a combination of action at sea, military intelligence, and spy dramas will enjoy every page of "Two If By Sea". Contains six Ocean Navigation Charts and twelve Cold War photographs of the aircraft and ships used in the book.
